

NATRC STATE LIABILITY WAIVER - PAGE 2

ALASKA Section 09.65.145:

I have noted the warning sign posted at the ride sign-in location and acknowledge the following:

Pursuant to Alaska Statute Sec. 09.65.145, I have been warned and thus agree to waive all liability of the NATRC and its affiliates, including officers, directors, volunteers and members (hereinafter the Released Parties”), for any loss, injury, damage or death arising from the inherent risks of equine activities, including instances involving the alleged negligence of the released parties. I have been advised that: (a) Livestock are unpredictable and inherently dangerous. All persons who knowingly place themselves in proximity to livestock for any reason involving an activity that includes livestock subject themselves to serious injury or death and are considered a participant in livestock activity and assume the risk of injury or death caused by the livestock. (b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a person, and the personal representative of a person, who suffers an injury or death resulting from a livestock activity may not recover civil damages for the injury or death from a livestock activity sponsor, livestock professional, or livestock activity participant, or the agents or employees of a livestock activity sponsor, livestock professional, or livestock activity participant.

The "inherent risk of a livestock activity" means those dangers or conditions that are an integral part of a livestock activity, including:

- (A) The propensity of livestock to behave in ways that may result in injury to a person on or around livestock;
- (B) The unpredictability of livestock's reaction to sound, sudden movement, and unfamiliar objects or persons, or other animals;
- (C) Hazards or conditions unknown to a livestock activity sponsor;
- (D) Collisions with other livestock or objects;
- (E) The potential of tack to become dislodged or move in ways that may result in injury to a person on or around a livestock activity; and (F) the potential of a person to negligently engage in conduct that contributes to an injury or death during a livestock activity.
